

WVLO Musical Theatre Company
Announces its 52nd Season, 2016–2017

“In The Heights” Nov./Dec, 2016

Music & Lyrics by Lin-Manuel Miranda; Book by Quiara Alegria Hudes

This is a South Bay premiere which explores 3 days in the lives of the characters in the New York City Latino neighborhood of Washington Heights. After opening on Broadway in 2008, this high-energy musical was nominated for 13 Tony Awards and won four, including Best Musical and Best Original Score. Set in modern day New York City, it portrays a vibrant community full of hopes and dreams and deciding which traditions to protect and which to leave behind. This exciting, vivacious Latin-flavored music and choreography will electrify and entertain all ages. The score includes “It Won’t Be Long Now”, “When You’re Home”, “Everything I know”, “When the Sun Goes Down” and the title song.

“A Chorus Line” March/April, 2017

Music by Marvin Hamlisch, Lyrics by Edward Kieban;

Book by James Kirkwood, Jr. & Nicholas Dante

Celebrating its 40th Anniversary, WVLO brings back to this stage the show’s authenticity, humor, hope and breathtaking music and choreography. This is a musical celebration of those unsung heroes of the American Musical Theatre—the chorus dancers; those valiant, over-dedicated, underpaid and highly-trained performers who back up the stars and make them look even more talented than they are. It’s about a group of dancers who are auditioning for an upcoming Broadway show, which opened on Broadway in 1975 and won 9 Tony Awards, including Best Musical. The incredible score includes “What I Did For Love”, “At The Ballet”, “Nothing” and its biggest hit, “One”!

“Catch Me If You Can” June/July, 2017

Music by Marc Shaiman and Scott Wittman; Book by Terrence McNally

Completing our season is another South Bay premiere, a high-flying musical comedy about chasing your dreams and not getting caught. Based on the hit film that starred Leonardo DiCaprio and Tom Hanks, it tells the incredible true story of Frank Abagnale, Jr., a world-class con artist who successfully passed himself off as a doctor, lawyer and jet pilot. This is a witty, modern and entertaining spectacle with high-energy dance numbers and a riveting story. It opened on Broadway in 2011 and has toured nationally and was nominated for 4 Tony Awards, including Best Musical. The new, swinging score includes some of the composer’s favorites—“Fly, Fly Away”, “Jet Set”, “Don’t Break The Rules” and “Goodbye”. This splashy Broadway musical will get you through the day with flying colors and a few bonus miles left over.
