Announces its 45th Season, 2009–2010

“West Side Story” Nov./Dec. 2009

Music by Leonard Bernstein, Lyrics by Stephen Sondheim, Book by Arthur Laurents
The world’s greatest love story takes to the streets in this award-winning Broadway musical based on a tough, contemporary story, spiced with love and headlines about warring juvenile street gangs in New York and their struggle to survive in the world of hate, prejudice and violence. When “West Side Story” opened on Broadway in 1957, it was hailed by the critics as a milestone in blending drama, music and dance. An Oscar-winning movie version was made in 1961, starring Natalie Wood and Rita Moreno, that made this musical a classic. With electrifying dances and some of the most magnificent music ever written for the stage, the score includes “Maria”, “Tonight” and “Somewhere”.

“Sweet Charity” Mar./Apr. 2010

Music by Cy Coleman, Lyrics by Dorothy Fields, Book by Neil Simon
A musical comedy written by Neil Simon, “Sweet Charity” is about the life of Charity Hope Valentine, who is a true, original, eternal optimist—and the unluckiest romantic in New York City. This award-winning musical opened on Broadway in 1966 starring Gwen Verdon, revived in 1986 with Debbie Allen, who was later replaced with Ann Reinkin and then had another successful revival in 2005. This Broadway musical offers fun, laughs and good times with its tuneful score and sparkling Bob Fosse dances. Coleman’s score includes such hits as “Big Spender”, “If My Friends Could See Me Now”, “There’s Gotta Be Something Better Than This” and “Baby, Dream Your Dream”. From the first musical number to the last, Charity will win your heart.

“Breaking Up Is Hard To Do” June/July 2010

Music by Neil Sedaka, Lyrics by Neil Sedaka, Howard Greenfield and Cody Philips,
Book by Erik Jackson and Ben H. Winters
Appearing in this theater for the first time is this recently-released rollicking musical comedy featuring the songs of Neil Sedaka. The story takes place in a Catskills resort in the 1960’s and is the sweetly comic story of Lois and Marge, two friends in search of good times and romance, over one crazy Labor Day weekend. The score showcases 18 Neil Sedaka classics, including “Where The Boys Are”, “Sweet Sixteen”, “Calendar Girl” and, of course, the chart-topping title song.
